

Originally from the Philadelphia area, Rob began his work in Christian ministry in 1979 as a Youth Pastor. Since then Rob has served as a Pastor in small, medium and large churches, largely in Southeastern Pennsylvania. Under his leadership churches have launched new ministries, new worship services, a new church plant and doubled in attendance.

Rob graduated from Temple University, magna cum laude, with a BA in Speech and Human Communication, specializing in small group and organizational communication. His Masters degree is from Boston University – School of Theology – where he completed a special dual major in Spiritual Formation and Pastoral Counseling. He also has specialized training in a variety of areas, including church planting, church re-start, church revitalization and coaching.

Over the past few years Rob has served as a coach for several churches and pastors. He is the Chairperson of our Southwest District Resource Team - the Council of Ministries for our district. He has served in a variety of positions in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, including on the conference leadership team for eight years.

Rob has lived near Parkesburg, Pennsylvania for many years now. He and his wife, Linda, have four children: Benjamin, Elizabeth, Joshua and Christopher.

Linda shares Rob's passion for ministry. Linda has worked on staff at two universities and has worked for many years in Special Education administration at the Chester County Intermediate Unit. She is a loving, caring and talented person with a wonderful sense of humor.

Rob writes music and has performed with various music groups. His preaching emphasizes practical, Biblical messages. He is strongly committed to a life of sharing Christ with others and to growth in faith. He also has a strong commitment to prayer, spiritual growth, shared ministry and caring fellowship.
